Dear Mr. Hughes:

I regret the delay in responding to your December 30 letter to Secretary Muskie. As you have probably heard, the President of Korea commuted Kim Dae Jung's sentence on January 23. We are, of course, pleased that he was able to do so.

Thank you very much for your interest in this matter and for your support.

Sincerely,

Walter L. Cutler
Acting Assistant Secretary
for Congressional Relations

The Honorable
William J. Hughes,
House of Representatives.
